State Officers of Eastern Star Will Visit Here

Local Chapter to Entertain Agnes T. MacMeekin, Matron of Grand Chapter

Agnes T. MacMeekin, worthy grand matron of the Illinois grand chapter, order of Eastern Star, and members of her "official family" of state officers will be guests of Antioch chapter Thursday evening, July 13.

Mrs. MacMeekin, whose home is in Chicago, will make her official visit to the local chapter at a meeting to be held at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple.

Officers and members of other chapters in the lakes region and north shore areas have been invited to attend.

Dinner at 6:30

Arrangements are being made for a dinner for 100 persons, to be served in the Antioch Methodist church dining room at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Margaret E. Gaston is worthy matron of the hostess chapter and Ralph Kinrade is worthy patron.

Local People Attend 4-H Club Field Meet

Several from Antioch attended the Livestock Judging school held at one of the Curtis Candy company farms near Algonquin, Ill., on Thursday, June 29.

The purpose of the school was to acquaint 4-H club members with the best type of farm animals so that they could better select animals for their own breeding program.

About 500 4-H members and their leaders attended from the northern part of Illinois.

Those who attended from Antioch were: Philip Burke, Bob Carlson, Harold French, Bob Hughes, Rudolph Kacer, Mr. Kacer, C. L. Kutil and Richard Wells.

Robert Hughes rated the highest in the judging among the local 4-H members.

Worker Transfers from Essential Jobs Need O. K.

A worker who transfers from an essential job without obtaining a statement of availability or referral card can no longer become eligible for work by laying off for 60 days, Thomas H. Wright, War Manpower commission director for the Waukegan-North Chicago labor market area, states.

Under the priority referral program adopted here July 1, Wright stressed, both men and women workers must be hired through the WMC's United States Employment service or by arrangement made by it. This rule is true whether the worker has been employed during the preceding 60 days or not, and applies even though the worker has never been employed before, he says.

Previous provisions of the stabilization plan, Wright said, allowed a worker to quit an essential job without a statement of availability or referral card to lay off for 60 days, then take a job without obtaining a statement.

"This program has been set up to guide both men and women workers into the jobs where they are most needed for the success of the war effort," Wright said, declaring that "it is plain that when a worker stays off the job he is seriously hindering the war effort as well as losing his wages, without gaining the slightest benefit to himself."

Ravenscroft Cow Produces 653 lbs. Butterfat; 20,231 lbs. Milk

A registered Holstein-Friesian cow, the dairy herd owned by E. H. Ravenscroft, has recently completed a 365-day production record of 653 pounds of butterfat and 20,231 pounds of milk, the Holstein-Friesian association of America announces. This is more than 3½ times the production of the average dairy cow in the nation.

Her official name is Colantha Ormsby Pieterjie Fobes. She was milked 3 times daily and was 7 years 2 months of age when she began her test period.

Testing was supervised by the University of Illinois in co-operation with the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

News of the Boys in Service

Russell Hunter, Ph. U. S. N., Natl. Naval Med. Ctr., graduated July 5 from officers' training school at Bethesda, Maryland, with the rank of ensign. He will remain there for a short time before being transferred to California.

Pvt. Ralph J. Dowell's new A. P. O. number is 321. Ralph also wishes to thank the American Legion and the Antioch News for the paper, which he enjoys.

LT. WILLIAM B. WALKER AWARDED AIR MEDAL

A Ninth Air Force Bomber Base, E. T. U.—For participation in five pre-invasion missions over some of the most heavily defended German positions in Europe, the awarding of the Air Medal to Lt. William M. Walker, 27, of R. F. D. 2 Grand ave., Lake Villa, Ill., has been announced by Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, Commanding General of the Ninth Air Force.

Pilot of a twin engined "Havoc" in the A-20 Light Bombardment Group commanded by Col. Ralph Rhudy of Galax, Va., Lt. Walker and his aircrew are daily participants in the series of bombings which are dealing such jarring blows to German occupied territory.

Prior to his enlistment in the army in December, 1941, he attended Antioch Township High school and was engaged in farming.

Lt. Walker's last promotion was to the grade of First Lieutenant on Jan. 10, 1944.

PVT. HENRY F. LUBKEMAN BECOMES CITIZEN OVERSEAS

South Pacific—Pvt. Henry F. Lubkeman, of Antioch, Ill., a member of the famed 43rd Infantry Division which was the mainstay in the bitter battle that drove the Japs out of the New Georgia area, became an American citizen in a ceremony that took place at this South Pacific Allied base last week.

Pvt. Lubkeman, who joined the American Division in September 1943, took the oath of Citizenship which was administered by the American Consul to this allied territory.

Under special wartime arrangements, worthy alien members of the United States armed forces on duty in any theater of the war are afforded an opportunity to become citizens of the country for which they are fighting. In one instance, an American Vice-Consul administered the oath of citizenship to 139 men under fire on a beachhead in Italy.

Pvt. Lubkeman graduated from the Antioch high school in 1938. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lubkeman, also of Antioch.

"IT'S BEEN A PLEASURE!"

"In case any of my friends would like to write, my address is AER, Dept., Box 15, Carubretors, N.A.S., Banana River, Fla.," is the gentle hint dropped by L. E. Dibble, AMM 3/c.

"I've been down here since February, and I really like this station. The weather is hot and the mosquitoes are bad, but it must be much better than a Pacific island. We have very good chow and lots of recreation facilities. There is all-year-round swimming in the ocean."

"I want to thank you for sending me the paper. I understand that it is sent free to all in the service. If I'm indebted to someone else please let me know, and I'll be more than glad to pay for it."

(Editor's note: Expenses of sending the Antioch News to those in the service are shared by the newspaper and the American Legion, as part of their contribution to the war effort. The custom was begun by the late H. B. Gaston, publisher and editor, at his own expense soon after the inauguration of the selective service act.

As the number of papers sent out gradually increased to a point where it would be difficult for the News to carry on the program alone, the Legion generously undertook the underwriting of a portion of the cost. Individual members and persons not affiliated with the Legion have also aided from time to time.

John L. Horan, junior Tenth district vice-commander of the Legion, has devoted several hours each week to work on the mailing list ever since the Legion began to aid in the program. Of recent weeks, members of the Legion auxiliary have aided in wrapping copies of the papers on press day—a task that had been giving the regular News staff and assisting young folks a "run for their money" in the effort to get the paper in the mail by six o'clock.

Letters received from lakes region boys all over the world gave a great deal of pleasure to "H. B." who a

Anthony Venskus, 49, Dies During Night at Shady Nook Home

Funeral services for Anthony Venskus, 49, of Shady Nook subdivision, Lake Marie, who passed away at his summer home there some time Wednesday night, are awaiting arrival of two sons who are in the service.

The body has been removed to the family home in Cicero, where the funeral is to be held.

Venskus was reported to have succumbed to a heart ailment, for which he had been under treatment for some time.

On the evening before his death he and his wife Pauline had been playing cards with neighbors in their home. Venskus was not feeling well and lay down on a couch to rest, apparently obtaining some relief, and fell asleep.

When his wife retired for the night she observed that he was still sleeping and decided not to awaken him.

On arising in the morning, she found him still lying on the couch, and discovered that he had apparently died during the night. A physician and the Antioch Rescue squad were summoned, and the body was removed to the Strang Funeral home in Antioch. It was later taken to Cicero.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, are Stanley Albert, a navy aviation cadet stationed at Milton, Fla., and Alger, at Camp Fannin, Texas.

Venskus had been in the employ of the Crane plumbing supply company in Chicago for many years, and was starting a two weeks' vacation this week.

year ago July 8 put out the last copy of the paper he actively supervised, although he took a keen interest in its contents until his death in November.

Parents, relatives and friends of the men—and women—in the various branches of the armed service have shared with the News staff and the Legion in the enjoyment of these missives. It is not an uncommon occurrence to have a mother, father, sister or brother hasten into the News office to say: "I understand you've got a letter from our boy, too. Maybe he'd like to read ours—and do you mind if we read the one you got? We just can't wait until the paper gets out!"

There have been times when some of the letters have inadvertently been left out of the News of the Boys, and there have been visits to the News office that, through some mischance, were not mentioned—but all of the letters have been read and enjoyed—and all of the visits have been deeply appreciated.

The News feels sure that all the anonymous donors who have helped to make possible the Legion's share in the program join with the News in saying: "It's been a real pleasure, chum!"

S/Sgt. Ray Quadenfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Quadenfeld, Antioch, has APO No. 16266 AA 11, New York.

Pvt. Charles W. Smith, son of the Charles Smith family at Grass Lake, may be addressed via APO 447, Ft. Bragg, N. C.

S/Sgt. T. H. Toll is at Randolph Field, Texas.

Pvt. F. H. Willett is at Santa Rosa, Calif.

A notice from the Naval Air station, San Pedro, Calif., states that Louis W. Koppen has been transferred to flight preparatory school at San Luis Obispo, Calif.

Pvt. J. W. Koukol, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Koukol, Highway 173, west of Antioch, has been receiving training at Camp Wolters, Texas.

Harry Ward Pesat, PhM 3/c is now at Camp J. A. Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif., with the Field Medical School battalion, class 63, Sp. Tr. Regt., TC, Fleet Marine Force.

From Mrs. E. Dowell, Channel Lake—"I wish to inform you that Pvt. Ralph J. Dowell's APO number is 321 and to thank you in his behalf for the paper."

T/5 Bruce I. Dalgaard, who left recently for overseas service, may be reached via APO 322, Unit 1, care Postmaster, San Francisco.

1st Sgt. K. Blumenschein has been shifted from Camp Young, Indio, Calif., to Camp Maxey, Texas.

OUT DAMNED SPOT

Pet Show Will Be Sponsored Fri. on Recreation Program

The Antioch Summer Recreation program will feature a pet show Friday afternoon, July 7, at 2 o'clock, on the Grade school grounds.

Adella Rentner is to be general chairman, with Ronnie Vos assisting. Ben Drury will be the announcer.

Prizes are to be given for the cleanest, trickiest, littlest, biggest and most "dressed-up" pet. Acting as judges will be Kenneth Rentner, Don O'Day and Eleanor Forster.

Anyone interested may attend, it is announced by Veda Campbell, press correspondent.

The daily handicraft schedule is as follows:

8-10 a. m.—children up to 7 years of age

10-11 a. m.—8 to 9 years

11-12 noon—10 years and over.

Anyone interested may attend throughout the morning, but should not join in other groups besides those to which they belong by age.

The afternoons are being devoted to outdoor activities.

Firemen Busy Answering Calls over Week-end, 4th

Two calls to the Dennis Shugrue place in the Leon Sax subdivision at Channel Lake were received by the Antioch fire department Monday night. The first, at 12:20 p. m. was from a grass fire which spread to hay and trees. The second was received at 2:15 o'clock, when an oil stove set fire to the home.

On July 4 a call was received for a grass fire at Indian Point.

There were two calls July 2, one at 9:45 p. m. to the Davis home on Lake street when a short circuit set electric wires in an automobile on fire, and another at 4:50 p. m. to the O'Brien place in Bowles subdivision, Lake Marie, for a grass fire.

Considerable damage was done Saturday night to a cottage owned by Howard Smith, Channel Lake, and rented by H. G. Buckley, when a davenport caught fire, possibly from a cigarette, firemen reported. The living room was burned out and other rooms in the home were scorched.

Members of the Buckley family were away at the time. The fire was discovered by Smith who turned in an alarm at 9:35 p. m.

Bond Campaign Will Close Here Saturday

Antioch's Fifth War Loan drive will close this Saturday, July 8, it was pointed out today by Township Chairman Otto S. Klass and campaign leaders, who asked that all possible bond purchases be completed by that time.

While no check has been made on the total of purchases to date, it is believed that Antioch's quota will be met, Klass stated. A final check will be made early next week.

The attention of investors is called by Klass to the different types of bonds available, including those from which interest may be received at comparatively early dates.

"Most of our fighting men from this area are receiving the Antioch News. Surely it will hearten them to know that the home folks are backing their efforts with large purchases of bonds," Klass and the campaign leaders comment.

Farmhand Badly Injured In 30-ft. Fall from Mow

Henry Zach, 45, received a compound fracture of one leg, injuries to the ankle of the other leg, and possible internal injuries in a 30-foot fall from the hay-mow to a concrete floor at the Henry Herman farm, route 2, yesterday afternoon, it was revealed following X-ray examinations at Victory Memorial hospital this morning.

Zach, who had been employed at the Herman place for the past five years, had been repairing a hay rope in the mow when he started to go down stairs for pincers and an oil can. He inadvertently stepped into an opening in the floor of the mow, and plunged down to the concrete.

The Antioch Rescue squad was called and removed him to the hospital.

It is believed that the full extent of his injuries will not be known for two or three days.

Theatre Owner's Nephew Killed in So. Pacific Action

Marine Sergeant Ray Hallbauer, 20, nephew of Bill Lemke, part owner of the Lakes theatre, has been reported killed in action in the South Pacific.

He enlisted before Pearl Harbor and served as turret gunner on a bomber. For several years before enlisting he had spent his summer vacations in Antioch and had made many friends here.

His mother, who is "Official Mother of Marines" in the Chicago area, conducts a radio program, "Your Neighbor's Problems" over WCFL daily.

Home Canning Program Will Aid Freed Nations

New York.—Continuance of their war-time role of preserving food from American farms by home canning, the nation's housewives will not only help bring an earlier end to war but lay the foundation for a better peace.

With thousands of persons homeless in areas liberated from Axis rule in both European and Pacific war zones, the role which food will play becomes as important as that of armaments, Harvey A. Baum, head of the produce buying affiliate of A & P Food stores, one of the nation's leading food distributors, said today.

While none of the food canned in homes will actually reach refugees in the rapidly expanding liberated areas, each home-filled container will release an equivalent amount of food in the actual war zones, Mr. Baum pointed out, observing that recent news pictures and dispatches from the invasion areas have depicted hunger and starvation that cannot be ignored if a just peace is expected of the future.

CEDAR LAKE 4-H GIRLS HOLD MEETING

The second meeting of the Cedar Lake 4-H club was held June 29 at the home of Geraldine Sass. The report of the War Effort chairman was given by chairman Beverly Hansen. Plans were made for a slumber party and a date set.

Lenora Hansen gave a talk on eating light foods. A demonstration was given on making white sauce by Misses Betty Mae Erickson and Jean Hawkins. "Keep Fit" exercises were led by Mrs. Crichton.

A luncheon was served by the hostesses following the meeting.

Legion's Fete July 13-16 to Be "Fun Fest"

Committee Chairmen for Annual Summer Celebration Are Announced

A "large time" is being planned by the Antioch American Legion post for those attending its annual summer festival, to be held Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 13, 14, 15 and 16.

Walter K. Hills is chairman of the general committee, assisted by Ernest Glenn, George Garland, Earl Horton, Dr. G. W. Jensen and James Waters. The grounds chairman is John L. Horan. F. A. Swenson and Roman Vos are the finance committee.

Auxiliary Members Aid
The Antioch Legion auxiliary will share in the sponsorship of the festival. Auxiliary committee chairmen include Mrs. Anne Heath, in charge of refreshments; Mrs. John Horan, games.

Rides and other attractions are planned for the festival.

Army-Navy "Pool" Affects Selective Service Routine

Men from Illinois being inducted under Selective Service after July 1 will report back to the Armed Forces Induction station at 166 West Van Buren street, Chicago, before going to the Army reception center at Fort Sheridan or to the Navy recruiting office in Chicago, it has been announced at the headquarters of the Sixth Service command.

The change is being made in accord with a national plan to establish a pool of men physically qualified for induction in order to be able to meet exact Army and Navy quotas at any given time.

Men will continue to receive pre-induction physical examinations at the Induction Station and then will return to their homes for a minimum of 21 days. Certificates of physical fitness will be sent to their local Selective Service boards and copies will be forwarded to the men to inform them whether they have been accepted or rejected.

When ordered up for induction, men will report back to the Induction station for screening physical examination, assignment and induction. At that time they will be allowed to express a preference and will be assigned to the Army or Navy to meet demands of each service. Service records will be initiated at that time for men assigned to the Army. Navy assignees will be sent to the Navy Recruiting station for processing. Army inductees will be transported to the reception center at Fort Sheridan via surface transportation.

The first group of Illinois selectees to be affected by the new plan is scheduled to report today.

Dedicate Honor Roll at Felter's Subdn. Sunday

Three hundred attended the dedication of an honor roll in Felter's subdivision, Lake Catherine. Mrs. C. Diemer, mother of six men now in the service, unveiled the honor roll. John Burke, president of the Felter's association, gave the address of welcome.

There are 30 names on the honor roll at the present time.

An additional list of names which will also be placed on the honor roll is being compiled.

Antioch American Legion post acted as a co-sponsor of the program and Roman B. Vos, commander of the Civilian War council, was master of ceremonies.

Memorial Services Honor Ranger Murrie

Memorial services honoring Ranger William Murrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Murrie of Petite Lake and Oak Park, Ill., were held at the honor Roll plaque at Petite Lake on the Fourth of July.

Ranger Murrie has been reported by the War department as missing in action in Italy.

Word from his commanding officer has been received by his parents, and this letter was read during the services.

Well, What About That Post-War Situation?

Like everyone else, we have been reading a considerable amount of literature concerning the post war plight of the returning veterans.

It seems as though everyone has a plan and a half for helping them make their re-adjustment to civilian life. The roster of post-war-planners-for-the-veterans includes not only the patriotic organizations, the senators, representatives and various federal, state, county, city, town and township governing organizations, the manufacturers and other employers; it includes the man on the street, the teacher in the school and the housewife in the home. In fact, we wouldn't even be surprised to hear that the servicemen themselves have a few plans in mind for the day when they become civilians again.

However, we're beginning to think that something has been overlooked in all this post-war planning.

That's the younger generation that has grown up during the war and has ventured out into the business and manufacturing world during an era of fairly high wages, and more than plentiful jobs.

If there is a post-war depression, what will be its effect on this new working generation, now still in its teens in many cases?

What will become of these youngsters when they have to abdicate, in a sense, to experienced, capable, older men—and women—as they are released from the service?

Most of the men in the armed services were pretty well able to take care of themselves before they left civilian life. In many cases, they have acquired additional training and new skills; they have become accustomed to coping with difficult situations to an added degree.

Many of them will step back into the jobs they left to enter the service, or similar jobs and will carry on with them efficiently as before, or more so. With the exception of those disabled by injuries or illness, most of them will probably have far less difficulty in adjusting themselves to civilian life than they did to life in service.

But what about little brother and little sister, who have come to feel that they were mighty important in their jobs? What about the housewives who stepped out of the kitchen into the factory, to earn pretty good pay "on the job?"

We aren't smart enough to know all the answers, ourselves.

Our guess is, that Mamma won't be too sorry to exchange her overalls for a kitchen apron and a little more rest than she has been getting, and that Papa will be glad of it; we don't know but what Big Sister will be fairly willing to exchange her welder's helmet or Wac or Wave or Marine's headgear for a bridal veil; but we wonder about Little Sister and Little Brother.

Are they going to be willing to go back to being that . . . after being Important People?

And will those who have found the absence of Big Brother's or Pop's restraining influence an opportunity to "run wild" going to take kindly to being trimmed down to size once in a while?

No doubt it will all work out . . . and the excitement of seeing "the boys" come back, the joy over their return, and the "pepped-up" tempos of social life will all help.

At least, it should be interesting to watch . . . and we secretly suspect that the boys who got the military and naval situation in hand can be trusted to be a pretty important factor themselves in handling the post-war affairs.

In fact, we'd be awfully surprised if they weren't.

A General Who Can Grin

Some of the pictures the news photographers are sending back from France are so realistic that they almost tear your heart out. They serve the needful purpose, however, of making us homefronters realize, at long last, that the war our boys are waging is not something dreamed up in Hollywood.

Among them are pictures of General Eisenhower—chatting, grinning and in such sincere fellowship with his Yanks, washing his face in a tin wash basin up front—just being himself, "Ike."

Somehow they make us trust him all the more—particularly after remembrances we have of frozen-faced militarists thrusting out their granite chins, apparently forgetful of the humanness of us all.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I can't think of anything else you'll need for your Victory garden, Judge... you've got pretty nearly everything."

"I think so, too, John. Ever get your asparagus patch going?"

"I gave that up last year, Judge. Tried it six years in a row with no luck. Just haven't got the right soil, I guess?"

"Well, I think you're wise, John... no use keeping on trying things you know won't work. Just like prohibition. State-wide prohibition has been tried in this country seventy-two times in the last ninety years. It has been adopted forty-seven times in the past thirty-three years and discarded everywhere except in three states. Same thing was tried in eight provinces in Canada and in Norway, Sweden, Finland and Russia but it was an admitted failure and universally abandoned.

"The reason is prohibition does not prohibit. All you get is bootleg liquor instead of legal liquor, plus no end of crime and corruption."

REPUBLICANS ADOPT CONSTRUCTIVE AND SOUND PLATFORM

The platform adopted by the Republican Convention at Chicago contains no "waxen" words. It is a frank and simply worded declaration of purposes with no opportunity for any misinterpretation. It outlines in definite terms a constructive program designed to relieve the people of bureaucratic regimentation; to put a stop to prodigal spending with continuing deficits; pledges the reestablishment of constitutional government, the free enterprise system and our American way of life.

Win the War Pledge.

The preamble is a tribute to the men and women of the Armed Forces with a pledge to prosecute the war, in cooperation with our Allies, until the Axis powers have been completely and decisively defeated; with no interference with the General Staff of the Army or the Office of Naval Operations as to the conduct of the war. With the final defeat of our enemies it promises the return of all those serving in the Armed Forces whose enlistment periods have expired and who do not volunteer for further overseas duty. It says: "We declare our relentless aim to win the war against all our enemies; for our American security and welfare; to make and keep the Axis powers impotent to renew tyranny and attack; for the attainment of peace and freedom based on justice and security. We shall seek to achieve such aims through organized international cooperation and not by joining a world state."

Postwar Foreign Policy.

It favors full responsible participation by the United States in post war cooperative organization among sovereign nations to prevent aggression and to attain permanent peace with organized justice in a free world. It proposes definite methods of accomplishing such results, and very definitely proposes that the United States shall not sacrifice any of its sovereignty by becoming a part of a world state. While the platform would have this country assume a fair and full share of the responsibility for the rejuvenation of the world, and a maintenance of world peace it proposes methods of accomplishing such purposes through international cooperation, and not through the establishment of any super-government. On the prosecution of the war and the establishment and maintenance of world peace it leaves nothing to be guessed about or misinterpreted.

Farm Plank Definite.

On no subject is the platform more definite and emphatic than that of agriculture. It calls for full production at all times, without interference of any kind or any form of farm regimentation. It insures a price for farm products that will mean farm prosperity. It would provide that price through tariff protection for the whole market; the establishment of support prices on the part of the government; commodity loans to the farmer; the development of new uses for farm surpluses; support of farm co-operatives; crop insurance; a soil conservation program, and other practical provisions to insure the farmer an income fair and equitable in comparison with labor, business and industry. It opposes subsidies in any form or any interference with farm management or farm production. It proposes to provide a market at a profitable price for whatever the farmer may produce and in whatever quantity. The farm program calls for the development of paved roads and the extension of rural electrification.

That farm plank provides for a practical solution for the farm problem without imposing bureaucratic regulations. It would make of every farmer, owner or tenant, a free and independent individual.

Restore Free Enterprise.

The Republican Party proposes to restore and maintain the free enterprise system with business free from bureaucratic control. It would take the government out of business competing with free industry. It would dispose of, on an equitable basis, all government owned industrial plants; provide such legal regulations as to prevent monopolies; to protect the public, and especially small business which the platform pronounces "the basis of American enterprise." It would protect small business against discrimination and provide equality of opportunity.

The platform does not stop with such declarations but proposes definite methods of accomplishing such purposes.

Reduce Taxes and Waste.

On the subject of taxation and government expenditures the platform is decidedly definite and emphatic. With the ending of the war it calls for an immediate reduction of the rates of taxation on individual incomes, on corporations and consumption to such an extent as is consistent with the payment of the expenditures of an economically operated government, with a promise to eliminate from governmental costs every wasteful and unnecessary expenditure, including the discontinuance of the many duplicating government bureaus and agencies, and a reduction in government pay-rolls.

That plank definitely, and in no uncertain terms, rejects the New Deal theory of restoring or maintaining prosperity through government spending and deficit financing.

The above is a very brief summary of but a few of the planks of what is a truly remarkable and constructive platform. Those responsible for its preparation did not write words in criticism of the past, but confined their efforts to providing constructively for the future. It is an unusual political document that fully meets the needs of an unusual time in the history of the nation.

The July committee of the Ladies' Aid society will hold a bakery sale and ice cream social in the church dining room on Tuesday evening, July 11, instead of July 6. The bakery sale will start at 6:30 p. m. and the ice cream social at 7:30. The committee in charge is as follows: Mrs. Max Irving, chairman, Mrs. Lyman Thain, Mrs. O. L. Hollenbeck, Mrs. L. H. Messersmith, Mrs. Leslie Diederich, Mrs. Jens Johansen, Thelma Clark and Lois Bonner.

Plan to attend Millburn Home Sunday at Millburn church on July 30 with morning services at 11 o'clock and a fellowship pot-luck dinner following the services. Rev. Norman L. Rice of Grand Forks, N. Dak., former pastor at Millburn, will preach the morning sermon.

The third meet of the Millburn Maidens' 4-H club was held at the homes of Dolores and Marion Miller and Faye Haney on June 21. The business meeting was held at the Miller home and the program at the Haney home. Joan Hughes gave a demonstration on "Preparing Cooked Cereals." Louise McCann gave a talk on "The Seven Basic Foods." Marion Miller gave a talk on "Why Good Posture Is Important." Johanna Coleg gave a talk on "What Practices to Conserve Clothing," and Joanne Diederich gave a demonstration on "Fitting and Laying a Pattern." After the program of work, refreshments were served by Mrs. Miller.

—Joan Hughes, reporter.

Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Messersmith accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Engh of Wadsworth to Milwaukee on Sunday where they were dinner guests at Mr. Engh's sister's home. Miss Beryl Bonner spent the weekend with her sister and family, the Howard Pettys of Urbana.

Mrs. Helen White of Evanston called at the J. S. Denman home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. H. M. Herrick, who has been a medical patient in St. Francis hospital in Evanston the past two weeks, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Messersmith and her Sunday School class of high school boys and girls were entertained at the home of Duane Weber Monday evening.

The Millburn unit of Home Bureau with the Millburn Maidens' 4-H club as guests will meet at the home of Mrs. O. L. Hollenbeck with Mrs. L. H. Messersmith as co-hostess on July 14.

Mrs. Raymond Hauser was hostess at a shower for Mrs. Clifford Weber, Sr.

Jr., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Clark Thursday evening. Three tables of airplane bunco were played, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frank Hauser and Mrs. Clifford Weber, Sr.

Pvt. and Mrs. John Dickey and son, Edward, of Forest Park, were dinner guests of their mother, Mrs. Mattie Edwards Sunday.

HELL DIVING'S HIS JOB ..LENDING IS YOURS!

WITH guns blazing and a prayer in his stout heart, this American fighter is hell-bent on destruction of our enemies. HE is not thinking of how little or how much he's doing to help win the war. For him, the chips are down; but his fighting spirit is as high as the heavens from which his plane is diving.

In cramped foxholes and disease-infested jungles, on sun-scorched beach-heads—under and over the seven seas—other Americans are matching his courage. And their name is legion. They KNOW that war is a bloody business; that their lives, as well as yours, are at stake.

Is it asking too much of you to back these men up by buying more, and still more, War Bonds? There can be but one answer. You'll find it in your own heart.

And remember, too, as you dig deeper than ever before into your pocketbook or cash surplus, that the Fifth War Loan MUST raise 16 billion dollars. It is the greatest financing drive the world has ever known... to back up the greatest invasion drive the world has ever known.

And Here Are 5 MORE Reasons for Buying EXTRA Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the war.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

SOCIETY EVENTS

SHARON ANN GIBBS AND MOTHER OBSERVE BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARIES

Sharon Ann, two-year-old daughter of Pvt. and Mrs. Donald Gibbs, entertained a number of her little neighbors at a party in her home Saturday afternoon in honor of her birthday anniversary.

In the evening her mother was hostess to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibbs, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gibbs, also in honor of Sharon Anne's birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Gibbs' own birthday anniversary, which occurred Tuesday, was the incentive for a party in the afternoon in the Robert Gibbs home at Richmond.

Pvt. Gibbs is at present stationed at San Diego, Calif., with the Marine corps, and has been on duty at the rifle range.

UNIT TO MEET AT McDUGALL ESTATE

With moving pictures shown by Miss Orpha White of the Lake County tuberculosis sanatorium as the major lesson, Home Bureau met at the home of Mrs. Bert Doolittle Wednesday, June 28, with Mrs. Curtis Wells assisting.

A report of the bakery sale held in June was given by Mrs. Wells. Mrs. Earl Barron, county health chairman, also gave a report.

The next meeting will be held on the Eugene McDougall estate July 26, and at this meeting the 4-H girls of Antioch will be entertained.

Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Barron, Miss Lillian Wells and Miss Josie Mann. Refreshments were served.

LAKE REGION UNIT MEETING POSTPONED

The joint meeting of the Lake Region Unit of the Home Bureau and the Cedar Lake 4-H club scheduled for July 19 will be postponed until Wednesday, July 26. The meeting will be held at the Cedar Lake school at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Helen Volk, Lake County Home advisor will be present.

MRS. GEORGE CERMAK HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

A number of friends and relatives gathered at the Zalatoris cottage, Lake Marie, today for a party honoring Mrs. George Cermak, the former Jennie Zalatoris, on her birthday anniversary. Lt. and Mrs. Cermak and son, Randy, are here from Lake Charles, La., to visit relatives during the lieutenant's furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zalatoris, Cicero, are spending a two weeks' vacation visiting Mrs. Zalatoris' mother, Mrs. Henry Einfield, Lake Marie, and other relatives.

Personals

Mrs. Clara Willett entertained her grandson, Robert A. Ziegler, and Miss Elizabeth Watson of DeKalb the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Runyard, Jr., had as guests for the holiday Mr. and Mrs. Robert Runyard, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Larson of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kufalk and family and Mrs. Estelle May.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilton entertained at a picnic dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson and son of Highland Park, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Birkhead and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Von Holwede and daughter Hilda, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Petty and son David.

Guests of Misses Deedie and Mary Tiffany Tuesday were: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dubbs and Lt. Youngblood, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Stupey of Waukegan, Miss Rosalie Sibley of Dayton, Ohio, Miss Bell Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Burke. Miss Sibley will remain for a two weeks' visit with the Tiffanys.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Van Patten and son, Johnnie of Tullahoma, Tenn., arrived in Antioch this week for a ten day visit with "Eddie's" parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Van Patten and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Eveline Hatton of Chicago was the guest for the week-end of Dr. and Mrs. Earl James Hays at their home on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Valters and sons, Wallie Joe and Billie of Chicago were guests for the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Gaston.

Mrs. George Stock, Mrs. J. Mechler and Mrs. Elizabeth Behler of Woodstock were dinner guests of Mrs. Homer B. Gaston Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hachmeister spent Tuesday with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kennedy at Congress Park.

Sulpha Tablets
If a soldier is wounded, and is conscious, he begins to take sulpha tablets as soon as he is hurt, and dusts his wound with the powder. Thus his pain is eased and infection is prevented until he can be reached by a hospital corpsman and taken back to his lines for surgical treatment.

Neutral Politically

Once a power which at times controlled all of Scandinavia and even England, Denmark in modern times has pursued a "middle of the way" course politically. It pioneered in social security and health legislation. There are few millionaires and fewer beggars among its 3,800,000 people.

School Lunches in Country

Figures for 1942 indicate that most of the school lunch programs were in rural areas. In March, 1942, of all the school lunch programs operating, 17 per cent were in urban areas (cities above 2,500 population) and 83 per cent were in rural areas.

Uncover Vanadium Deposits

With the recent uncovering of rich deposits of war-essential vanadium in southwestern Wyoming and southeastern Idaho, the United States hopes to become self-sufficient in supplying this "strong arm" metal to its steel-hungry nation.

News of the Boys...

Chicago correspondent enjoyed the pleasure of being present at the Commencement exercises of the Hayes school on June 29. It was from this grammar school that Antioch's able and eloquent Methodist minister was graduated. The Antioch people had especial reason to plume themselves on this occasion, as "Mr. Hennessey," whose Irish articles, written for and appearing only in THE ANTIOCH NEWS, came before the audience in the person of Eddie Gray. Mr. Gray delivered the story of Mr. Hennessey's reminiscences in true Irish style. Antioch's local genius, Preserved Wheeler, was again represented in the course of the entertainment, by the poem "Grandma," recited by Miss Addie Melendy.

Will Hodge, the barber, still continues business at the old stand, in the Ingalls' building, opposite the drug store—outside appearances a barn, but everything neat and clean inside. Shaving, with all luxuries, 10 cents; hair cutting and singeing, 25 cents; sea foam, 10 cents.

LOST—on the road between Loon Lake and Antioch, about June 20, a black wool shawl. Finder please leave at C. O. Foltz & Co.'s store or with Mrs. S. D. Warner.

John Welch made a trip to Grayslake, Thursday, and succeeded in selling two fine monuments. The people of that place know good work when they see it, consequently placed their orders with Mr. Welch, who takes pride in turning out nothing but the best of work and material in his line.

The lawn social given by the Y. M. C. A. at the residence of D. A. Williams, on last Wednesday evening, was socially and financially a success. The grounds were well lighted with Chinese lanterns and the tables were spread beneath the trees. The program was rendered as follows: selections by the male quartette and also by the lady quartette, music by the orchestra and by the Antioch band. Miss Leila Williams sang a solo and gave an instrumental selection, and Mrs. D. A. Williams also sang a solo. Ice cream and cake were served and also lemonade. The evening's entertainment netted the Y. M. C. A. about $16.00.

A party stopping at C. E. Herman's resort captured a 12 pound pickerel in Bluff lake Sunday.

FOURTH OF JULY: THE ANTIOCH CELEBRATION! The bright day was ushered in with a salute that shook the entire village. . . . The parade was a little late in starting, which cut short any program before the dinner hour. At 1 p. m. the band discoursed sweet music, after which the Rev. Clarence Abel delivered the masterly oration of the day, which we are enabled to reproduce in full on this page. Lack of space prevents a further report of the celebration until the next issue of the NEWS.

—Excerpt from oration, "THE VOICE OF THE FLAG"—"When the eruption really burst at Sumpter into the lurid glare of war the very foundations of the Union began to quake and tremble. Long and anxiously did Liberty peer through the murky warcloud to see if the stars of her sky still dazzled as of oldtime in glorious perihelion on their field of blue."

On page 8, Preserved Wheeler's "Mr. Hennessey" relates to his Mollie his adventures at the play, "Charley's Aunt."

"As we cum out ov the theayter Casey sez, 'Tare's Powers.' Wot do yez mane? sez Oi. Jist then Oi noticed Casey nodding an smilin at a hansum little mon wid a face on him ez brought ez a summer marnin."

"Don't yez know harry Powers?" sez Casey, 'shure he's the finest mon this soide ov the herrin pond. Oi thot ivry wan in Chicago knowed Harry Powers.'

"Yez fooled yerself," sez Oi, 'fer thare's wan mon in Chicago niver heerd ov him till tonight, and thet mon is Pat Hinnisey.'

"Casey looked at me soide-ways, and ez we wint along Oi sez, sez Oi: 'O've seen Charley's Aunt, an O've seen 'Harry Powers, but where wos the CAT?'

"The what?" sez Casey. 'The cat,' sez Oi. 'Where wos the cat. Oi seen no hoide nor hair ov it.' 'An why shud yez see a cat?' sez Casey.

"Why fer no?" sez Oi, 'the vestibule ov the theayter wos full ov pictures of big cats wid Charley's Aunt in great letthers undher ivry wan ov thim.'

'Oh! sez Casey, 'that woz advertizin'.

"They had no bizniss doin' it," sez Oi, 'Whin they promised cat they shud furnish cat.' . . .

"An thare Oi lift him Mollie, sthll shakin his fists at me."

Finished Compost

Fundamentally, finished compost is well turned or spaded mixture of soil and decayed plant material, usually with mature or commercial fertilizer added. Although some authorities recommend the addition of lime, the department of agriculture says that it may cause loss of nitrogen from the fermenting vegetable matter. Department specialists suggest placing unbleached wood ashes and other materials containing lime in the garden area itself.

Save Rancid Fats

Even though some of their glycerine content has been lost, waste kitchen fats which have turned rancid, should be salvaged.

REPUBLICANS NAME DEWEY AND BRICKER

Both Selected as Unanimous Choice at National Convention.

By WRIGHT A. PATTERSON

For PRESIDENT: THOMAS E. DEWEY of New York.
For VICE PRESIDENT: JOHN W. BRICKER of Ohio

That is the ticket unanimously named by the 1,659 delegates, with an equal number of alternates, at the Republican national convention in Chicago. Those delegates received no direction or instruction from political leaders. They had been sent to Chicago by the people in their home states, the Joes, Johns, Dicks, Harrys, Marys, Janes and Sallys, to do the bidding of that great rank and file body of Republican voters of the nation.

The home folks, from Maine to California, from the Canadian line to the Gulf, knew the man they wanted as a leader, the man they wanted in the White House, and would brook no compromise with their demands. They demanded Governor Dewey, and the delegates they sent to Chicago did the bidding of those who sent them, and drafted him as they were directed.

So far as the selection of a candidate for president, of a leader, the convention was over before it started. The few states in which the people thought otherwise, and the limited number of delegates, who had thought of other candidates, recognized the general demand, and before the first session of the convention had opened on Monday morning such a preponderance of delegate votes had lined up for Governor Dewey there was no question of whom the people wanted and demanded as a leader, and other candidates accepted the verdict.

Unity Predominant

In that great gathering on no subject or any point was there any evidence of even the slightest friction. There was a universal spirit of unity unusual in any great national partisan gathering. With that unity was displayed a steadfastness of serious purpose expressed by wild demonstrations of approval. They had gathered in Chicago to do those things needed to save the American way of life, to preserve American freedom, to maintain constitutional government.

I have seen many conventions of both of the major political parties of the nation. I have never before attended a convention in which there was such an entire freedom from friction, such an entire unity of purpose and approval of leaders and policies, such a sense of patriotic devotion, such an utter absence of political squabbling, such an entire submission to the will of the mass of the people. The atmosphere was more that of a great religious revival than a partisan political gathering.

There was but a limited amount of even mild "viewing with alarm," no time wasted in violent denunciation of the opposition though the opportunity offered was great. The thoughts of the delegates, the selected officers of the convention and the speakers, were centered on the constructive moves and methods needed to restore to the people the freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

A People's Convention

Of the 25 national conventions of the two major political parties I have reported since 1896 the Republican gathering of 1944 was remarkable for the serious consideration given to the needs of America at this time of war and during the formation of that lasting peace that must be provided for the future. It was unique, also, for the determination to follow the wishes and demands of the people with no effort or thought to promote the interests of political leaders. It was in every sense, a people's convention in which ballyhoo had no place, but an extreme patriotic enthusiasm was manifest.

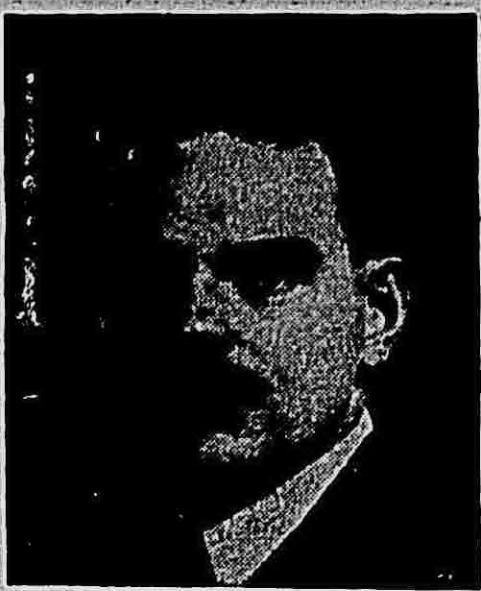

The formalities of the convention followed the established procedure of such gatherings. Harrison Spangler, Chairman of the National Committee, called the convention to order shortly after ten o'clock on Monday morning. At that session Gov. Earl Warren of California was elected as the temporary chairman. At the Monday evening session Governor Warren presided and delivered a ringing Republican keynote address that was far more constructive than condemnatory.

In that address he sounded the program of constructive legislation the party promised the people of the nation, legislation that would

GOV. DEWEY ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION

Having been unanimously drafted by the Republicans of the nation, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey responded immediately to the call. Flying from Albany he arrived in Chicago Wednesday evening and appeared before a wildly enthusiastic audience at the Chicago stadium. With Gov. Bricker, his running mate, at his side, Governor Dewey accepted the nomination in a ringing address. The following brief excerpts from that speech indicate its general tenor:

"To Americans of every party, I pledge that on Jan. 20 next year our

GOV. THOS. E. DEWEY
Republican Candidate for President.

GOV. JOHN W. BRICKER

mean the preservation of constitutional government, and relief from the bureaucracy and extravagance of the present administration. When on Tuesday, Representative Jos. W. Martin, of Massachusetts, was selected as permanent chairman, he, too, promised the same kind of legislation. That such a program was what the delegates from all states were asking in the name of the people they represented was demonstrated by the wild acclaim with which such promises were received. The American people wanted a constructive program that would relieve them of the regimentation under which they were living, an assurance of a continuance of the freedoms they had enjoyed, of their way of life. That is what the Republicans were offering.

At Tuesday night's session former President Herbert Hoover, in a stirring address, assured the vast audience of the Republican guarantee of a continuance of the 30 freedoms provided by our Bill of Rights rather than the limited four of the Atlantic Charter. His presence, and assuring words, were greeted by prolonged cheering that Chairman Martin had difficulty in quieting so the speaker might continue.

Constructive Addresses

Following Mr. Hoover, Congresswoman Clare Boothe Luce, in an address directed especially to the women, created the same kind of patriotic enthusiasm. The same enthusiastic reception was given each of the many addresses delivered during the sessions from Monday to Wednesday night when Governor Dewey, who had flown from Albany after his nomination, accepted the call of the Republican party for his leadership. He received, as it were, a wildly enthusiastic ovation. He was the leader the Republicans wanted and demanded. He was the man they would follow.

Two other Republican leaders came to Chicago with a very considerable following, Governor Bricker, of Ohio, and former Governor Stassen of Minnesota. When it became evident that the greater demand was for Governor Dewey the names of neither of these two outstanding men were presented to the delegates, and Governor Bricker seconded the nomination of Governor Dewey when his name was presented to the convention by Governor Griswold of Nebraska.

Gov. Earl Warren, of California, had a strong following for the vice-presidential nomination. He, like Governor Dewey, had insisted that he did not wish the nomination, and on Tuesday definitely announced he could not accept it, by chance, the nomination was offered. He could be of greater service in California. Governor Bricker had not wanted the second place on the ticket, but when he announced his withdrawal as a candidate for the first place nomination, an appeal was made that he sacrifice personal interests and inclinations and accept the vice-presidential place as a service to the cause of free government.

Both nominations were made without a contest and both were the overwhelming choice of the delegates whose job was that of choosing standard bearers for the Republicans of America for 1944. They did the job exactly as they had been told to do it by the people who had sent them to Chicago, the people who will vote for Dewey and Bricker in November.

GOV. DEWEY ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION

government will again have a cabinet of the ablest men and women to be found in America.

"This election will bring an end to one man government in America."

"When we have won the war, we shall still have to win the peace."

"It seems that the great men who founded this nation really knew what they were talking about when they said three terms were too many."

NORTON BASSETT TAKES PART IN "D DAY" BOMBING

Attracting much interest during the past few days is a picture received from an Eighth Army Air force bomber station in England which shows crewmen of a B-24 Liberator who received their baptism on "D Day" and who had just returned from a bombing of Nazi defense installations on the beaches in support of the Allied ground forces. Crew members include Sgt. Norton Bassett of Antioch, a gunner.

S/Sgt. Norton Bassett's APO number in New York is 559.

A bulletin from Ens. Edward C. Jacobs, Hollywood, Fla.—"So far I have found life down here rushing but yet interesting. I have sought to mark my room on the face of this card. Not bad, eh? By the way, will I receive my copy of the paper in the near future?"

"My address has been changed again."—A/S. Ted Schmitz, Columbus Army Air field, Miss.

"I just thought I had better write to the News and thank you for the paper. I sure missed it for a few weeks. It is good to read what goes on at the home front. They say the heat gets terrible here in July and August. I sure believe they are right. I have been here for four weeks now, and Army life is okay. We get darn good food. One of the crazy things they do here in Texas is pull all the grass up by the roots so the dirt washes away. But that is the Army way."—Pvt. Ray Lasco, Camp Hood, Texas.

Capt. A. N. Berke, Camp Forrest, Tenn., was a surprise visitor to Antioch Wednesday, calling on many of his old friends here. Capt. Berke, who was hospitalized for some time when he received an ankle injury while supervising the loading of stretchers on a vehicle, reports that he has enjoyed his return to duty and that he has been able to get about very nicely in a jeep while his ankle has been growing stronger. He brought with him a number of pictures showing scenes of havoc created by the cyclones which struck Pennsylvania and West Virginia while he was en route from Tennessee to visit at his father's home in Versailles, Pa. Versailles was one of the towns damaged by the storm.

S/Sgt. and Mrs. Orville E. Hawkins arrived early Monday morning from Camp Robinson, Ark., to spend a 12-day furlough here. Sgt. Hawkins will have completed three years of service in the army this Saturday.

CHANUTE FIELD, ILL.—Soldiers of this AAF Training Command post have been advised that they may utilize their off-duty days for farm or food processing work in nearby communities.

A year ago soldier-labor from this field went a long way toward relieving the manpower shortage in this vicinity during the harvesting and canning season.

Post officials in carrying out War Department policy have no objection to soldiers using regular pass or furlough time for such work. However, no passes or furloughs for the specific purpose of performing such work are being granted in addition to those normally due a soldier.

All requests for soldier-labor on the off-duty basis will be handled through the Chanute Field deputy for administration and services.

The petty officer rating of torpedo-man third class was granted to Blue-jacket Herman H. Hess, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hess, Route 2, Antioch, at recent graduation exercises of the Service school at the U. S. Naval Training center, Great Lakes.

He was selected for his specialized training on the basis of his recruit training aptitude test scores. Graduates from the 20 specialized courses taught at the service school are sent to sea, to shore stations or to advanced schools for further duty or training.

The Hess family have a grocery store on the west side of Channel lake.

Pvt. Gilbert Haisma, Jr., former Antioch auctioneer, is continuing his army training at Camp Wolters, Tex.

W. J. Griffin, MM2c, has been removed from Camp Peary, Va., to Norfolk, Va.

"After touring the states for some time and then ending up in the south Pacific, I was informed by my folks that the News had been having a hard time keeping up with my address, with the result that I haven't been receiving the paper." Ralph E. Gussarson, S2c, observes.

"I have one month of time to my credit on these islands now. They have kept us busy the biggest share of the time, so time travels along at a good pace. It won't be too long before I'll be back in good old Antioch."

"Well, until that time, I wish all the People of Antioch 'good luck,' and hope I will get the news soon."

S/SGT. POHLMAN IS AWARDED OAK LEAF CLUSTER IN ITALY

An announcement has been received from the 15th Army Air Force headquarters in Italy, of the award of a Bronze Oak Leaf cluster to the Air Medal earned recently by S/Sgt. Warren E. Pohlman, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pohlman of Bristol. In the words of the citation, Sgt. Pohlman was awarded the cluster "for meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy."

A left waist gunner, Sgt. Pohlman is a member of a Liberator bombardment group which has been bombing German-held targets in southern Europe.

He is a graduate of Union Free High school, Wilmet, Wis., and a former employee of the Sheahan Implement company, Antioch. He has been in the army since Oct. 27, 1942, and received his gunnery training at Laredo, Texas.

CORP. WHITE HOME AFTER 20 MONTHS OVERSEAS

Corp. John R. White, U. S. Marine corps, has been home on a 35-day furlough after spending 20 months in the south-west Pacific area.

T/Sgt. William Gerber, care of A. P. O. 350, New York, seems pleased to note that "the weather has made a change for the better. At least it is somewhat warmer."

"The days are long. It gets light at five in the morning and stays light until eleven-thirty at night."

"I want to say that I really enjoy reading the home town paper. It brings me much closer to home."

"I enjoy all the different church services over here."

A/C Andrew F. Simpson is continuing his training at San Antonio, Tex. He was formerly at Sherman, Tex.

Brenner Pass

The Brenner pass is sometimes loosely referred to as covering the entire 81 miles from Bolzano at the southern end of an Italian mountain valley to Innsbruck at the northern end of an Austrian valley. The actual crest of the pass, however, is at the Italian-Austrian line. Scores of bridges are required to carry the railway and highway over the many deep gorges in this Alpine corridor. One of the bridges was reported destroyed.

F. D. R. IS FAR FROM INDISPENSABLE

The New Dealers say Franklin D. Roosevelt is the one man the nation can't do without in winning the war. Washington newspaper correspondents, noted for their disinterested attitudes, say he is only a "show" man when it comes to usefulness in Washington.

Look Magazine recently made a survey of opinion of Washington correspondents, asking whom they considered to be the most useful Washington official.

Was Roosevelt first? Not on your life.

Was Roosevelt second? Not at all. Franklin D. Roosevelt was THIRD man in the race.

In other words, Franklin D. Roosevelt is very dispensable. He can be done without.

First most useful man, according to the correspondents, was a soldier—General George C. Marshall, chief of staff. Second most useful man according to the correspondents, was Cordell Hull, secretary of state.

The same survey made a poll to determine the 10 least useful persons in Washington. Among those getting high score were Frances Perkins, secretary of labor; Henry Morgenthau, Jr., secretary of the treasury; Claude R. Wickard, secretary of agriculture; Henry A. Wallace, vice president of the United States; Francis Biddle, attorney general—the majority of the Roosevelt cabinet.

Also voted among the ten least useful were John E. Rankin, Democrat representative from Mississippi; Harry L. Hopkins, special assistant to the President; Joseph F. Guifey, Democratic senator from Pennsylvania; and Paul V. McNutt, director of the Federal Security agency.—Ohio Republican News.

Republicans Win New York Beachhead On Invasion Day

Democrats were stunned by a crushing defeat suffered on "Invasion Day," in a New York City Congressional district which had been Democratic for 63 years.

Republicans hailed the election of Ellsworth B. Buck in the 11th district over Thomas V. Cantwell, a Democrat who had American Labor party support, as an omen of victory throughout the nation in November.

Buck polled 14,269 votes against 10,764 for Cantwell, whose vote was made up of 8,507 Democratic and 2,197 American Labor party ballots. Buck's vote was 57% of the total vote cast. This constituted a gain of 15% in vote percentage in two years.

What was most distressing to Democrats was the apparent rejection of their No. 1 argument for the fourth term: Don't desert the commander-in-chief in time of war.

If voters cast their ballots against the commander in chief on invasion day, Democratic leaders acknowledged that they cannot be expected to be swayed by appeals not to change horses in the middle of the stream on election day.

The Republican victory in a traditionally Democratic district in New York city adds to the tangible evidence of the Republican trend registered in recent months in special congressional elections in Colorado, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Kansas, Missouri and other states.

U. S. Marines Wed New Zealanders

Requests Pour in Despite Many Obstacles.

WELLINGTON, N. Z.—Marriages of men of the United States marine corps now exceed 300 since the first outfits moved into the South Pacific region a little more than a year ago. Despite the difficulties, pointed out to prospective brides, attendant on becoming the wife of an American while abroad, and despite the fact that the men have been warned of the necessity of making their own provision for the transportation of their wives to the United States, the applications for permission to marry continue.

Marine corps chiefs could scarcely have been more careful in their approach to the problem of war marriages. From the beginning, it was decided that marines might marry only if they obtained permission from their commanding officers in the area. Before this was granted, a careful investigation of both parties was undertaken. Their health, background, education, employment and future plans were investigated, and officers even visited girls' homes to check on their circumstances and origin.

A marine must reveal his financial standing, also his prospects of getting work after the war. Then the officers go to work to discover what prospect the pair have of making the marriage stick. In this process the situation is represented in most discouraging terms to both parties. But if they persist in their desire to marry and seem likely to have ordinary chances of success, permission is granted.

While most marine bridegrooms are in their early twenties and the girls are rather younger, the boys come from all social strata and are by no means all new to the service.

Plane Spotter, Totally

Blind, Never Misses One

PARADISE, CALIF.—Although he is totally blind, Joseph E. Stephens has stood a weekly aircraft spotter's watch without missing a single assignment in 16 months.

Stephens, who lost his sight when a horse fell on him in 1906, stands watch from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. once a week and reports every plane "sounded" within four miles of the aircraft warning post.

He is accompanied by another observer and his nine-year-old Seeing Eye dog, Armin.

Butte county has two other blind ground observers in the aircraft warning service. They are Mr. and Mrs. Morris Schurr of Oroville. In daytime Stephens is a farmer and Schurr operates a newsstand in the Oroville post office.

Stonewall Jackson Kept

A Secret, So Does Hull

MOSCOW.—Gen. Stonewall Jackson stopped a second front question for Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

When newspaper men asked a military question that Mr. Hull wished to avoid, the secretary smiled and told of General Jackson's entrance into Charlottesville, Va., ahead of his troops during the United States Civil war. A curious Charlottesville resident approached and asked the general what his visit meant in terms of future events.

"Can you keep a secret?" asked General Jackson.

"Yes," replied the man.

"Well, so can I," General Jackson retorted.

Leading Exports

With its large proportion of fertile soil and open country, Bulgaria's leading exports are from farms, and normally include tobacco, fruit, sugar, raw silk, rose oil, wheat and other cereals, and animal products. Germany, in 1940, took nearly 60 per cent of the nation's exports and was the source of about 70 per cent of the imports. The entire 1941 tobacco crop was bought in advance by the Reich, which is also reported active in the development of Bulgaria's mineral resources, especially copper, lead and zinc.

What Bond Can Buy

For $18.75, invested in a $25 War Bond, the army can buy a cotton mattress, a cotton-filled comforter, two sheets, a mosquito bar, four pairs of tan cotton socks and one summer undershirt.

POULTRY MEDICATION

These Tablets are popular because of their dependable action in controlling certain intestinal infections due to Coccidia, Amebae and Bacteria, and Parasitic Infestation of Poultry due to Roundworms and Tapeworms.

They are compounded from a balanced combination of Iron and Copper with an organic dye base and are adaptable as drinking water medication or may be used in wet mash.

The therapeutic value of these tablets is based on their astringent, germicidal and antiseptic properties.
